SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

1. Ferdinand Durcansky, president of the Slovak Action Committee, at present wishes to travel to the United States.
2. He has recently been attempting to find some responsible person who would either recommend him for a United States visa or who would make arrangements for him at the American Consulate in Buenos Aires. He has not yet found anyone to assist him and is reportedly very disappointed.
3. In spite of the fact that the Czechoslovak Government forwarded an extradition request to the Argentine Government, Durcansky is apparently living a normal, unmolested life in Buenos Aires.
